Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed 14 October 2003 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: Storing the records of biometric data in a secure database, and storing being performed use secure transport protocol.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 14 October 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that the Tabuki reference does not disclose that the biometric information contains parameters is not persuasive because Tabuki discloses that the biometric data can contain physical quantities such as fingerprints and retinal patterns (parameters, Col. 1, lines 31-34).

The terminal disclaimer filed on 12 September 2003 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Patent No. 6,182,076 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 32 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Storing the records of biometric data in a secure database, and storing being performed use secure transport protocol.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Art Unit: 2132

6. Claims 31-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tabuki, U.S. Patent No. 5,706,427. Referring to claims 31-43, Tabuki discloses the connection of the web server station to the web via a secure transfer protocol (Fig. 2), the linking of the authentication center to the web server station (10, 20, 30, Figs. 1 & 2), the use of HTTP (Fig. 2), the use of connection other than the web cloud would be inherent from figures 1 & 2 which show general linkages of the server, user host and authentication server. Tabuki also discloses a biometric device at the web client stations (Col. 4, line 18), an interface mechanism for biometric data is disclosed as the tablet for signature data (Col. 4, line 20), a software program necessary at the interface and web client would be inherent in the teaching of the reference because software is necessary to accomplish the authentication and communication to the UNIX based system shown in figure 2, a web server providing the parameters for biometric authentication is shown as the verification server (30, Fig. 2), biometric databases and multiple biometric servers (Col. 6, line 13). The biometric databases are taught as RDB relational databases (Fig. 3, Col. 5, line 21). A web server providing parameters associated with biometric authentication is taught by the reference as the World Wide Web server providing signature verification (Col. 5, line 6). A web client station, provides for a claimed identity and this is taught by the reference by user names and authorized users and authentication data (Col. 5, line 10).

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 2132

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
